

THE FAIRVIEW CHRISTIAN CHURCH VISITOR

Volume 57, Issue 14

April 07, 2021

Upcoming Events

April 8—Conf. Room Res. (S.M.)

April 10—Aquarium Club (FH)

April 11—FCC In-Person & Online Worship Service; Ethiopian Christian Fellowship in Missouri (Sanctuary)

April 13—Faith in Him (Music Room)

April 15—Boy Scouts (FL)

April 18—FCC In-Person & Online Worship Service; Ethiopian Christian Fellowship in Missouri (Sanctuary)

Easter Sunday was very special. We had 89 in worship. (Which breaks our Covid record by over 20.) There was fantastic music and earlier that morning a handful of us gathered in the parking lot to share in watching the sun rise.

This week I begin a series of sermons on Mark's Gospel. I hope to see you then.

—Steve

CLAY COUNTY CLOTHES CLOSET

For many years our congregation has supported Clay County Clothes Closet with donated items of clothing for needy families, but during Covid we've haven't continued these donations. I have been in touch with Debbie B., Executive Director, of CCCC who told me the Clothes Closet is in need of clothing for families.

She specifically mentioned the need for boys and girls underwear and socks in sizes for toddlers, 3 to 9 years old. These should be newly purchased items. I recently made a large donation of these items to the bins back in Fairview's Fellowship Hall.

Debbie also mentioned the need for teenage, young adult and adult items of clothing. These can be items that members of your family members have outgrown or no longer wear. Please be sure these items are clean. The bins in Fellowship Hall are marked Clay Co. Clothes where you can deposit all these items. I'm sure many of you will want to get back in the habit of donating clothes.

Thank you for your donation. Also, CCCC is one of the charities supported by financial donations from the FCC Missions Committee. —Melva D. L., Missions Committee Chairperson

It is with sincere sympathy that we announce that Mace H., father of Chris H., passed away April 3rd; he had been under hospice care. Please keep Mace's family in your prayers.

With Sincere Sympathy

Dear Fairview Family,

Thank you for your kind cards, emails, texts and messages to us while we were far from home in Florida, and now at home in Gladstone.

When we were afraid you comforted us, when we felt alone you reminded us how many of you cared about us, and made us feel less lonely.

You were Jesus's hands and voice in our time of need.

We will never forget your kindnesses. —Joy and Chet

Sunday
Services

10:00 a.m.
Worship Service
In-Person & Online

Transitional Minister
Dr. Stephen R.

Steve will be out of the office on vacation for Friday & Saturday.

If you have an urgent message that cannot wait until he is back on Sunday, please reach out to Joy G..

Sharing the Good News of God's Love through Faith, Worship, Service and Community