Transitional Minister
Dr. Stephen R.

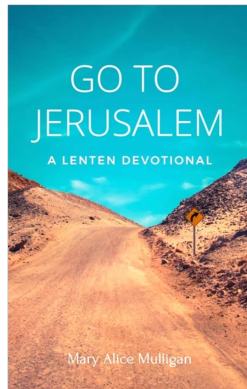

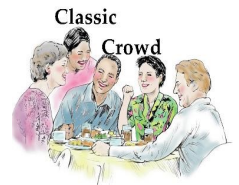

I hope that you have been enjoying the sermon series I have been doing on the "Minor Prophets." We will be coming to the halfway point of the series this Sunday when I preach on Habakkuk. If you have ever asked the question, "Why is life not fair," then this sermon may be for you.

Reminder

Classic Crowd is not meeting in February in accordance with the continued Clay County COVID-19 guidelines. Stay tuned, updates will be provided as they become available.

This Lent, imagine placing your hand in the hand of Jesus and journeying with him to Jerusalem.

Entries begin with the darkness of Ash Wednesday and culminate with the glory of Easter morning. During Holy Week, Mary Alice Mulligan takes us through the events of that long-ago week with fresh eyes, new ways to understand an old story.

Fairview has free copies of this Lenten Devotional while they last. Copies are available on the Welcome Table & the table just down from the Chapel.

Or, please feel free to call the office if you would like to come by & pick up a copy.

Due to current COVID guidelines,
Fairview will not be having an
Ash Wednesday Service this year.

Reminder —CMF 2021 Valentine Brunch—Cancelled

Due to current circumstances, it's regrettably necessary to cancel our annual brunch. We look forward to having our popular event next year.

Pastor Search Update

We have received five profiles from prospective pastor candidates, which frankly, is not very many.

The region office continues to encourage us that there will be more candidates, so we are striving to be patient.

We have reviewed and evaluated the profiles of all five candidates, checking references and viewing sermon videos of the two who looked like possible matches. One was identified as potentially filling Fairview's needs.

We recently conducted a Zoom interview with that candidate, which went very well. We are in the process of organizing a second Zoom interview and will then decide whether to schedule an in-person interview.

Meanwhile, we are still hopeful for more candidates.

Please continue to pray for the success of our search.

2021 FCC Book Sale — Postponed

The annual book sale that would normally have taken place the first weekend in February, due to current COVID guidelines & restrictions, is cancelled for February.

It is hoped that conditions will improve later this year & Fairview might have an opportunity to have the sale later in the year. Should we have that opportunity it will be announced in Fairview's newsletter.

So stay tuned & stay safe.
